

2000 Annual Report

Helping residents and their associations build stronger, safer communities

Neighborhood Assistance

The Neighborhood Resource Center provides customized assistance to communities throughout Colorado. From brief phone consultations to intensive local programs, NRC helps residents solve problems and strengthen their communities.

NRC also publishes written materials and hosts a web-site with useful information for neighborhoods. In 2000 we hosted the second statewide Colorado Neighborhoods Conference and Celebration to help neighborhood activists obtain new knowledge and skills.

Good Neighboring Project

NRC's Good Neighboring Project promotes neighborhood cohesiveness, safety and harmony block by block. Now in its fourth year, the project encourages residents to host block parties, work on block projects and improve relationships with their neighbors.

In 2000 we promoted Good Neighboring statewide. We gave out over 1,800 party packs, providing free ice cream and other supplies, and distributed 45,000 Good Neighboring Kits throughout the state.

Neighborhood Problem-Solving

The Neighborhood Resource Center is one of three partners in the Colorado Regional Community Policing Institute. As part of the Institute, we have helped train hundreds of law enforcement officers and community members on how to establish strong partnerships to reduce and prevent crime in our neighborhoods.

During 2000 we conducted a series of neighborhood problem-solving workshops in 24 neighborhoods. In these workshops residents and law enforcement learned how to work together by finding solutions to community problems.

Community Building

The Neighborhood Resource Center is working in more than a dozen neighborhoods on intensive, long-term efforts to improve the quality of life for local residents.

In 2000 we worked with Mile High United Way to distribute grant funds in four neighborhoods, and with Denver's H&NDS agency to provide technical assistance to nine neighborhoods. We also helped The Denver Foundation and the Annie E. Casey Foundation with long-term neighborhood assistance efforts.
